(Special to The Argus.) Galesburg, Ill., Nov. 8 .- Snyder's ccidental touchdown on a forward, pass from Usher, to counterbalance Pete Welsh's drop kick from the 25-yard line, forced Knox to defeat at the hands of Ripon college. Wisconsin state champions, at Willard field here Saturday afternoon, Knox lost the game by virtue of a fluke, but had Ripon outclassed otherwise than in brilliance of offense. The score was 7 to 3.

Ripon played a hard, fast game, using a versatile repertoire of plays.

Knox was superior in weight, fight and sticking qualities on defense. But their offense was ineffective at all points. At least four times the Galesburg boys were held when all seemed lined up for a touchdown. Both scores were made in the sec ond quarter. Welsh found conditions favorable and drew first blood with his drop kick. Ripon shortly afterward thereafter took the ball down the field with a smashing set of line plunging tactics, and when 30 yards from the goal opened up for a forward pass. Usher made the throw to Snyder. one of the ends, who jumped to catch it and fumbled, exactly on the goal line. Knox players coming up, halted, as they saw the ball was missed. Snyder jugled the oval backward across the line for a sixpoint score. The kick made ti 7. Knox Makes Grand Try. -Knox tried vainly to score
